

Guest Student Application

Students enrolled at other law schools, graduate students at Michigan State, and others who wish to enroll in one or more courses at Michigan State University College of Law may do so as a “guest” or “visiting” law student. Prospective guest students may apply to the College of Law up to four weeks prior to the start of the academic term; however, applying earlier is recommended. Prospective guest students who are working toward a law degree at another law school must also provide a letter of authorization from the dean’s office of the home institution. Completed applications may be mailed, emailed or faxed to the MSU Law Office of Admissions.

If you answer yes to any question in this section, a written addendum is required. Be sure to include the date, location (city/state), and a full descriptive statement of any and all incidences, the outcome, etc. Affirmative answers to the questions below do not necessarily preclude or even prejudice admission to the College of Law. However, discrepancies discovered or failure to disclose information in this section could result in withdrawal of your offer of admission, dismissal after matriculation to the College of Law, or rejection of your application to take a state bar exam. In the event that responses to these question change between now and the date of your enrollment, you are required to make the Admissions Office aware of such changes. Subsequent to your enrollment, any changes to these responses must be communicated to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs at the MSU College of Law.

1. Have you ever been cited, arrested, taken into custody for, indicted for, charged with, convicted of or pled guilty to violation of any law or been the subject of a juvenile delinquency or youthful offender proceeding? (MSU Law requires disclosure of all traffic violations excluding parking violations, although repeated parking violations should be included if they resulted in misdemeanor charges. The entry of an expungement or any order sealing or purporting to authorize any person to deny the existence of such matters does not relieve you of the duty to disclose the matter in this application). Yes No
2. Have you ever been subjected to disciplinary action by a college or university (such as reprimand, probation, or suspension) or are there any disciplinary charges or investigations pending or expected to be brought against you? Your response to this question must include disclosure of any such actions related university dormitories or housing. Yes No
3. Have you ever been subjected to disciplinary action by the military or by an employer? Yes No
4. Have you ever been suspended from practice, reprimanded, censured, removed or disciplined by any professional organization or state agency charged with reviewing professional conduct? Yes No
