Dr. Karen Mock

Multiculturalism and Human Rights: The Increasing Challenge of Competing Rights Domestically and Abroad

Wednesday, October 3, 2012
Noon
MSU Law, Castle Board Room

Lunch will be provided.

Dr. Karen Mock is a certified teacher and educational psychologist, specializing in human rights, hate crime, and diversity issues. She earned her Ph.D. in applied psychology from the University of Toronto, and is widely acknowledged as one of the foremost Canadian authorities on multicultural/anti-racist education.

Dr. Mock has been qualified by the Canadian courts and human rights tribunals as an expert on hate/bias crime, and serves as special advisor and trainer for several police services as well as various legal and judicial organizations.

For more information, contact Susan H. Bitensky, the Alan S. Zekelman Professor of International Human Rights Law and director of the Lori E. Talsky Center for Human Rights of Women and Children, at bitensky@law.msu.edu or 517-432-6898.